Housing Affordability

DATE: Thursday December 15, 2005
LOCATION: Pine Point School Library/Technology Center
89 Barnes Road, Stonington, Connecticut 06378
TIME: 7:00 p.m.

Affordable Housing and the escalating value of property in Stonington has been a recent hot topic. This topic has led the Town to create of an Affordable Housing Advisory Committee to develop a plan to address this issue. This forum is designed to answer questions about what housing affordability is, and offer options to address community needs.

Come and join David Fink, the Policy and Communications Director for the Partnership for Strong Communities and the Lyceum Resource and Conference Center in Hartford, Connecticut, to discuss this topic.

The Partnership for Strong Communities is dedicated to raising public awareness and advancing solutions to end chronic homelessness, create affordable housing and build healthy and economically vital communities. On the web at www.ctpartnershiphousing.com
